Application for Student Funding Opportunities
Performing Arts Department

Name ______________________________________________

Email __________________________ Phone ________________

Application for (indicate one):

Russell Schwartz Travel Funds – due at the beginning of each semester
Funds may be awarded during the academic year for travel to conferences which will contribute to/support your field of study in the Performing Arts Department.

John Jutkowitz Summer Grant – application due March 1
This prize is designed for outstanding rising seniors. An award of up to $2500 will be given for work or education in one of the following areas: Classes or Workshops in Acting, Directing, Playwriting, Dramaturgy, Theater/Performance Studies and other Drama-related Areas; Directed Research for a Senior Honors Thesis or Independent Study; Theater Internships; Community Service Involving Theater and/or Theater Education.

Steven Distler Internship in Design/Technical Theater – application due March 1
Awarded to an exceptional rising senior interested in a summer internship in scenic, costume or lighting design or technical theatre in order to study with a major designer in their field of interest or with a technical professional. Following the summer apprenticeship, fall semester the student would report on his/her experiences and using the acquired skills, be asked to function as a main designer for one of the PAD shows in the student’s senior year.

Please type responses on another page and return this form with your responses.

1. Describe how you intend to use this award.

2. Location and dates of program

3. Preliminary budget: travel, lodging, research expenses, tuition, etc.

4. What will your work involve?

5. How will this impact your studies at WU?

6. How might this impact future job opportunities/career plans?

Also attach an endorsement from a PAD faculty member to this form.